Who We Are

We are a local provider of home care services to our fellow residents in Lakeville, Minnesota and the nearby areas within and surrounding the twin cities. On top of your health and wellness, we want to make sure your activities of daily living (ADL's) and homemaking needs were taken care of without giving you a hassle. With this in mind, our caregivers will carefully render one-on-one supervision of your basic needs and concerns at your home. Our services are best for all adults and seniors who have certain health conditions and difficulty in accomplishing the activities they have been used to.

Services

All of our clients at Amani Health Care Services are given utmost attention with their basic care needs at home. To maintain a smooth relationship with them, we keep in mind the value of putting their safety first, respecting their dignity, and uncompromising the quality of our services being delivered to them. Our personal care attendants are composed of highly equipped caregivers who have been into years of dedicated service. They are all certified to deliver basic hygiene care, so as to secure the health and safety of disabled and ailing adults and seniors.
